

Dagoberto Rodríguez

Planeta de Cristal

February 27, 2021 - July 24, 2021

Piero Atchugarry Gallery presents Planeta de Cristal (Crystal Planet), a futurist solo exhibition of video work, watercolor work and an immersive installation by one of the most influential Cuban artists of the turn of the century, Dagoberto Rodríguez. Conceived almost entirely during the outbreak of the pandemic, Crystal Planet seeks to imagine a future that endures beyond the unfulfilled promises of modernism, and the fragile state of the earth's present social, political and environmental circumstances. Curated by Aluna Curatorial Collective (Adriana Herrera & Willy Castellanos), Crystal Planet is also the inaugural show of Rodríguez's representation in Miami.

The exhibition is, as Aluna Curatorial Collective states, "a space to face the winds of political anomie and ecological destruction. The title and the works exhibited in Crystal Planet are a measurement of our vulnerability and activate various warning signs that in some way interrupt the vertiginous nature of a critical time."

Watercolor landscapes of sinking remind us that we inhabit this Crystal Planet, and that it is increasingly urgent to find ways of living together that not only protect our species, but also prevent the extinction of other kingdoms.

In other watercolors, as the curators explain, Rodríguez takes up the monumental design of complex architectures particularly inspired by fascist dreams of dominance and surveillance, and transmutes them into spaces of "paideia"— fictional places for shared learning, and/or communal ways of living out of the shadows.

In recent years Rodríguez has drawn labyrinthine tunnels which, behind their beauty, harbor the terrible possibility of trapping you within them. Now, Rodríguez invites us to enter his Túnel, a large interactive tunnel which he designed throughout 2020.

This time, there is an exit, not only within the exhibition space, but within the passage of the present that we fulfill by daring to imagine:

"Think for example—he says—of a world in which it would be possible to be happy where you are born."

To the curators' point,
"Rodríguez uses, but simultaneously transcends,
the deconstructive strategies of parody and play, of humor and political irony, and ends up building a scenario that proposes an immersion in the possibility of imagining alternate futures."

Dagoberto Rodríguez

Born in 1969 in Caibarién, Cuba.

Lives and works between Madrid and Havana.

Dagoberto Rodriguez Sanchez was born 1969 in Caibarién, Las Villas and graduated from Instituto Superior de Arte (ISA), La Habana, Cuba in 1994. In 1992 he co-founded the collective Los Carpinteros. Their works have been exhibited in Museums and cultural institutions around the world, such as MOMA, Whitney Museum of American Art, Guggenheim in New York, Centre Georges Pompidou in Paris, Tate Modern in London and Museo Centro de Arte Reina Sofia in Madrid among others.

Dagoberto Rodriguez is currently based working between Madrid and Havana. Combining architecture, design and sculpture, his work employs humor and irony to comment on core topics in art, politics and society. Watercolor forms a very important part of his creative process, it is a way of collaborating, registering and revising his ideas. Often these reflect a fantasy of a possible conceptual situation.
